The Krishna Key Aug 18 2021 Five thousand years ago, there came to earth a magical being called Krishna, who brought about innumerable miracles for the good of mankind. Humanity despaired of its future if the Blue God were to die but was reassured that he would return in a fresh avatar when needed in the eventual Dark Age-the Kaliyug. In modern times, a poor little rich boy grows up believing that he is the final avatar. Only, he is a serial killer. In this heart-stopping tale, the arrival of a murderer who executes his gruesome and brilliantly thought-out schemes in the name of God is the first clue to a sinister conspiracy to expose an ancient secret-Krishna's priceless legacy to mankind. Historian Ravi Mohan Saini must breathlessly dash from the submerged remains of Dwarka and the mysterious lingam of Somnath to the icy heights of Mount Kailash, in a quest to discover the cryptic location of Krishna's most prized possession. From the sand-washed ruins of Kalibangan to a Vrindavan temple destroyed by Aurangzeb, Saini must also delve into antiquity to prevent a gross miscarriage of justice. Ashwin Sanghi brings you another exhaustively researched whopper of a plot, while providing an incredible alternative interpretation of the Vedic Age that will be relished by conspiracy buffs and thriller-addicts alike.

Murder in the Elevator Feb 09 2021 Arjun, an employee of KT Towers, pressed the elevator button and was waiting for it in floor six. There was a power cut, two different screams were heard. Power resumed. When the elevator arrived and the door opened, he saw Vicky, the CEO, lying in a pool of blood. Geetha, Vicky's secretary, was inside the elevator. The weapon used to slit Vicky's throat was not found. Geetha claims to be innocent. Could someone get into a closed elevator, during a power cut, to kill someone? if so, how could the person escape from there within five minutes without being noticed by people or CCTV? Kushal, a cop, tries to uncover the mystery behind this murder with writer Diya. Eventually, they fall in love. A murder mystery with an undercurrent of a beautiful romance between the cop and the writer. Kushal, a cop, and his girlfriend, Diya, a writer, try to solve this murder mystery.

If God was a Banker May 27 2022 Two young management graduates, with nothing similar in family backgrounds and temperament, join the New York International Bank on the same day and take two entirely different routes to success. Both rise up the ranks at breakneck speed: the fast and aggressive Sundep, who will stoop to anything to get ahead, and the mature and sensible Swami, with a high regard for good old ethics. The racy narrative set in the high-pressure milieu of competitive banking carries the undercurrent of a clash of values, in the intermeshed realms of the personal and the professional. This story peppered with ambition and frustration, deceit and malevolence, love and lust, and the desperate struggle for status and power. And, above all, there is a top-notch banker who plays the benevolent God whenever crises loom over the young guns. An insider's fictionalised account of how Indian professionals experience the world of foreign banks, the story spans three continents.

World 11 2021 Did you know that what you do today can change the world forever? The Boy Who Changed the World opens with a young Norman Borlaug playing in his family's cornfields with his sisters. One day, Norman would grow up and use his knowledge of agriculture to save the lives of two billion people. Two billion! Norman changed the world! Or was it Henry Wallace who changed the world? Or maybe it was George Washington Carver? This engaging story reveals the incredible truth that everything we do matters! Based on The Butterfly Effect, Andy's timeless tale shows children that even the smallest of our actions can affect all of humanity. The book is beautifully illustrated and shares the stories of Nobel Laureate Norman Borlaug, Vice President Henry Wallace, Inventor George Washington Carver, and Farmer Moses Carver. Through the stories of each, a different butterfly will appear. The book will end with a flourish of butterflies and a charge to the child that they, too, can be the boy or girl who changes the world.

Math Gold Apr 13 2021 _____ How you can raise your high school math test scores easily and quickly. Be proactive and start preparing for the SAT/ACT tests now. Read more below. _____ Based on many years' experience of teaching math for the SAT and ACT Tests, the author provides valuable, practical advice on how you can quickly and easily improve your high school math score in the shortest possible time. This relatively small book focuses on what a private tutor would tell you when working with you on a one-to-one basis. It explains math concepts; the structure of the tests; what occurs frequently, and what is less essential. It discusses strategy and tactics for the tests and gives you many practical tips on solving problems quickly and easily as well as on time management during the tests. The book helps you choose between the SAT and ACT math tests. Also, whether or not you should also do the math subject tests, Level 1 or Level 2, or both. Thinking behind this book is that you should learn the unique strategies and tactics discussed in the book as quickly as possible. You should be able to improve your math test score by some 70-90 points in SAT (to 8 points in ACT) or more in maybe 3 or 4 weeks of dedicated study. The specialized knowledge contained in this book, based on vast experience, is like gold for the SAT and ACT math tests and for high school math in general. The book is designed to be read easily on a cell phone and to navigate easily from one topic to another. It discusses around 92 math topics in arithmetic, algebra, geometry, trigonometry, and precalculus. Nearly one-half of the SAT Test is math. Whether or not you believe it now, math impacts many aspects of your life and career. Your level of expertise and skill in high school math and your test scores determine how easily and well you will sail through college. Knowledge of math will also help you in the study of most other subjects and make them that much easier for you. The SAT and ACT Tests are life-changing events. They decide which college or university you will go to and what your future career may look like. Given automation and artificial intelligence, the world is becoming more competitive, and jobs will be even more difficult to find without a college degree. This is the Student's edition of this book. Teacher's and Parent's edition, now available on Amazon as MATH GOLD type, discusses how they can help the student. The cost of the book has been kept low to help as many students as possible worldwide. _____ Elevate your knowledge and skills to the next level and increase your SAT/ACT math scores almost magically! Karachi, You're Killing Me Oct 08 2020 Ayesha is a twenty-something reporter in one of the world's most dangerous cities. Her assignments range from showing up at bomb sites and picking her way through scattered body parts to interviewing her boss's niece, the couture-cupcake designer. In between dicing death and absurdity, Ayesha despairs over the likelihood of ever meeting a nice guy, someone like her friend Saad, whose shoulder she cries on after every romantic misadventure. Her choices seem limited to narcissistic, adrenaline-chasing reporters who'll do anything to get their next story—to the spoiled offspring of the Karachi elite who'll do anything to cure their boredom. Her most pressing problem, however, is to straighten her hair during the chronic power outages. Karachi, You're Killing Me! is Bridget Jones's Diary meets The Diary of a Social Butterfly—a comedy of manners in a city with none.

Midnight Freeway May 03 2020 Yogesh Moolchandani, a disreputable builder, is dead. All the signs say suicide but there was nothing wrong with his life. He had just cracked a deal and things were looking good and hearty for him. He had recently even purchased an imported Volkswagen Jetta. CCTV footage from the night of his death shows him crashing into a toll booth at a speed of 180 km per hour on the Baroda Worli Sea Link. The dealer he had purchased his car from had received five missed calls from him just 15 minutes prior to the time of the alleged crash. On the same night, in another part of town, Pranav Paleja, a criminal lawyer who works at the law chamber- Mangesh & Mangharam, tries his best to extricate his client—a troublesome drunk—from the clutches of the police. Although an upholder of the law himself, Pranav is pathologically incapable of following it in his day-to-day personal life. Since Pranav Paleja was settling a dispute with the man concerned only moments before the crash, the police land up at his doorstep. As the authorities try to find out why Yogesh was calling his car dealer frantically, the plot begins to thicken.

Who, or rather what, killed Yogesh Moolchandani?

In Loving Memory Mar 01 2020 Dhruv is the popular dashing guy in Nisha's office. His impulsive antics repel her, but also attract her. From the day Dhruv enters her life, she starts getting anonymous threatening night calls and scary nightmares that seem too real. Who is this Dhruv? What's his connection with the strange happenings in her life? Can she trust him? Nivas is a guy you wouldn't notice in a crowd. Rimi is a chatterbox and the polar opposite. Naturally, Nivas is drawn towards her and gains the courage to propose to her, desiring more of her. Things turn ugly from then on between the two. As the stories of the two couples converge at an unexpected turn of events - Kevin, the best detective in town, ends up with a peculiar case. Everything about the case is confusing, contradictory and downright clumsy! A cat-and-mouse game ensues with everyone's life at stake. Every story has one ending, will this one too?

On Women Apr 01 2020 Khushwant Singh is well known for his brazen interest in the fairer sex. He has revelled in the notoriety that this interest has evoked. Some of his best known works are inspired by his enduring obsession with them, both as a peerless raconteur and as a journalist. On Women: Selected Writings is another good offering from this writer. In his book On Women: Selected Writings, he describes an embarrassing meeting with a drunken actress of yesteryear - Begum Para. He gives a detailed profile of Shradha Mata and of a tantrik sadhvi who claimed she was the mother of the illegitimate child of Jawaharlal Nehru. Mr Singh also talks about his grandmother, with a touching sketch on the twilight of her life. He also returns to some unforgettable women characters from his previous works of fiction: the clueless American teenager, Georgine, who was taken advantage of by a middle-aged tour guide in Delhi.

My First Book of Money May 15 2021 Everything you wanted to know about money but never asked the grown-ups about. They say time is money. But they never really tell you why. They say money doesn't grow on trees. But they don't tell you where it comes from. Aman and Anya are as clueless about cash as you. Then, they start asking questions. Egged on by clever Dadi and forthcoming Mom and Dad (who want nothing to come in the way of their children and knowledge), Aman and Anya learn what finances are really all about. So go ahead! Read on for a roller-coaster ride through the world of money.

A Brutal hand Oct 20 2021 "When a wealthy business owner is found dead in a Mumbai parking lot, the police are flummoxed. Alok Dalal was a family man, with a wife and a teenage daughter. There are no apparent enemies his family or associates know of. Who could want him dead? And the only clue is a note with the word 'Sorry' on it—what could it mean? As Inspector Abhay Rastogi investigates the baffling crime, the police find another body with a similar note. Is this a copycat crime, or are the two murders related? Will there be more bodies? Inspector Rastogi must race against time to catch an alarmingly elusive killer."--Provided by publisher.

Healed Oct 27 2019 Healed is the powerful, moving and deeply personal story of actor Manisha Koirala's battle against ovarian cancer. Sacred Games Jun 23 2019 An enormously satisfying, exciting and enriching book, Vikram Chandra's novel draws the reader deep into the lives of detective Sartaj Singh and Ganesh Gaitonde, the most powerful gangster in India. Sartaj, the only Sikh inspector in the whole of Mumbai, is used to being identified by his turban, beard and the sharp cut of his trousers. But 'the silky Sikh' is now past forty, his marriage is crumbling and his career prospects are on the slide. When Sartaj gets an anonymous tip off as to the secret hideout of the legendary boss of the G-company, he's determined that he'll be the one to collect the prize. This is a sprawling, epic novel of friendships and betrayals, of terrible violence, of an astonishing modern city and its underworld. Drawing on the best of Victorian fiction, mystery novels, Bollywood movies and Vikram Chandra's years of first hand research on the streets of Mumbai, this novel reads like a potboiling page-turner but resonates with the intelligence and emotional depth of the best of literature.
